Since it opened in April 1983, the Tokyo Disney Resort has been a truly magical place for its guests.

Just twelve kilometers from central Tokyo, Tokyo Disney Resort contains two Disney theme parks — Tokyo Disneyland and Tokyo DisneySea — four Disney-branded hotels and Ikspiari, an exciting shopping, dining and entertainment district. The resort is owned and operated by Japan’s Oriental Land Company under license from Disney Enterprises, Inc.

Tokyo Disneyland, which opened in April 1983, was the first Disney theme park built outside of the U.S. and has become Japan’s most popular family destination. Tokyo DisneySea, opened in September 2001, is a unique Disney park themed to the myths and stories of the sea, all in the grand tradition of Disney-style family entertainment.

OVERVIEW

NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Tokyo Disney Resort 35th 'Happiest Celebration' will be held through March 25, 2019. During the anniversary period, guests can experience a new daytime parade, new entertainment programs, special merchandise and special menu items at both parks.

Fantasyland in Tokyo Disneyland will be enhanced to include an area inspired by the Disney film "Beauty and the Beast," including a themed attraction, shop and restaurant. Additionally a new attraction themed to the Disney film "Big Hero 6" will open in Tomorrowland. In Toontown, a new Minnie Mouse-themed character greeting area is planned. The new areas and attractions will open in 2020. In Tokyo DisneySea, the popular attraction "Soarin'" (tentative name) will open in the Mediterranean Harbor area in 2019.

Oriental Land Company announced an expansion at Tokyo DisneySea that will create an eighth themed port to open in 2022. The port will include three distinct areas recreating the worlds of the Disney films "Frozen," "Tangled" and "Peter Pan," as well as a deluxe hotel with a one-of-a-kind luxury wing. There will also be four new attractions as part of the expansion.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Because of its ownership structure, Tokyo Disney Resort's community activities are led by the Oriental Land Company of Japan, with support and encouragement from The Walt Disney Company.

Tokyo Disney Resort is dedicated to delivering Disney dreams to those who are unable to visit the resort. Since 1983, Tokyo Disney Resort Ambassadors and Disney characters have visited more than 1,340 facilities nationwide, including pediatric wards in hospitals, facilities for people with disabilities, special needs schools and nursing homes. The resort's ambassadors and characters visited more than 41 such facilities. Tokyo Disney Resort is also a supporter of the Make-A-Wish Foundation in Japan.

In addition, the Dreamers on Stage Program at Tokyo Disneyland and Tokyo DisneySea provides opportunities for children and amateur groups to showcase their talents for our guests. This program is modeled after a similar initiative at the Disneyland Resort in California that started with Walt Disney himself.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

The Oriental Land Company, the owner/operator of Tokyo Disney Resort, employs more than 21,000 Cast Members. Through its wide variety of business activities — including tourism, production of goods, provision of services, construction and maintenance — it is a major driver of economic activity in the Tokyo and Chiba prefectural areas. Moreover, the Oriental Land Company adheres to a strict code of compliance to uphold high standards of business ethics, and encourages its partner firms to do the same.

THE ENVIRONMENT

The Tokyo Disney Resort operates according to the Oriental Land Company Group Environmental Policy, which takes a wide range of environmental considerations into account throughout all business operations. The policy calls for awareness and efforts to reduce waste and pollution that contributes to climate change and promote energy conservation, green purchasing, and recycling in all aspects of its business operations. The Resort has plans and goals in place to reduce CO2 emissions. For amounts that exceed the goal due to new facility additions and increased guest attendance, carbon offsetting has been implemented and the Resort continues its efforts to prevent climate change by supporting a wide range of CO2 reduction activities. Additionally, Cast Members are strongly encouraged to use public transportation to commute to and from work. Other measures include the installation of energy management systems to boost transparency of energy usage, introduction of LED lighting systems within office buildings and electrical decorations for nighttime parades, and installation of solar panels in available locations.

At Tokyo Disneyland and Tokyo DisneySea, paper waste has been reduced by eliminating paper towels in most restrooms and installing paperless hand dryers. Paper and plastic waste is being reduced by introducing non-disposable metal and chinaware dishes at dining facilities. Moreover, waste at Tokyo Disney Resort is separated, often by hand, based on detailed standards in order to recycle as much as possible. The materials are then sent to consignment recycling companies. Nearly 100 percent of raw waste, which includes kitchen waste, leftover food and unsold foods at its parks is recycled.

TOKYO DISNEY RESORT HOTELS

- HOTELS: Disney Ambassador Hotel, Tokyo DisneySea Hotel MiraCosta, Tokyo Disneyland Hotel, Tokyo Disney Celebration Hotel
- TOTAL NUMBER OF HOTEL ROOMS: 2,414

DISNEY AMBASSADOR HOTEL

Disney Ambassador Hotel, the first Disney hotel in Japan, opened on July 7, 2000. This elegantly designed resort hotel features 1930s American art deco design and special Disney-themed amenities. Here, guests will enjoy experiences unique to Disney Hotels, such as Disney Character Dining, where Disney characters greet them during their meal. And couples can make their dreams come true with Disney's Fairy Tale Weddings in the hotel's Rose Chapel.

TOKYO DISNEYSEA HOTEL MIRACOSTA

Tokyo DisneySea Hotel MiraCosta opened on September 4, 2001. This luxury hotel captures the elegance and ambiance of old-world Italy. "Mira costa" is Italian for "view of the coast," and the hotel offers accommodations with impressive views of the park's major waterway and Tokyo Bay.

TOKYO DISNEYLAND HOTEL

Tokyo Disneyland Hotel, the third Disney Hotel in Tokyo Disney Resort, opened on July 8, 2008. The hotel stands at the main entrance of Tokyo Disneyland Park, and because of its location it serves as the "front door" to the resort, welcoming guests with its grand Victorian design. The design blends with the architecture of World Bazaar, which is the first area guests see upon entering Tokyo Disneyland Park.

TOKYO DISNEY CELEBRATION HOTEL

Tokyo Disney Celebration Hotel is the fourth Disney Hotel and is located in Shin-Urayasu area nearby Tokyo Disney Resort. The designs celebrate the magic and imagination of Tokyo Disneyland® Park and Tokyo DisneySea® Park in the guest rooms, the lobby and the courtyards. Guests staying in the Tokyo Disney Celebration Hotel are surrounded by the ambiance of their favorite Disney Park memories, inspiring them to relive moments from their time spent in the Parks, as well as anticipating the experiences awaiting them the next day.

OTHER FACILITIES

IKSPIARI

Opened in July 2000, Ikspiari is a 29-acre retail, dining, and entertainment district at Tokyo Disney Resort, consisting of around 140 shops and restaurants, each with a distinct theme. Also within Ikspiari is Cinema Ikspiari, with 16 screens and 3,500 seats. Ikspiari is located adjacent to the JR Maihama train station, which serves as the gateway to Tokyo Disney Resort.
