When Walt Disney opened Disneyland on July 17, 1955, he said he hoped it would be “a source of joy and inspiration to all the world.” Since then, the Disneyland Resort has welcomed more than 750 million guests, expanding to become an approximately 500-acre, multifaceted, world-class family resort destination, complete with two renowned Disney theme parks, three hotels and the exciting shopping, dining and entertainment area known as Downtown Disney District.

Disneyland introduced the world to an entirely new concept in family entertainment. Today, it continues to use creativity, technology and innovation to bring storytelling to new heights, while fulfilling Walt Disney’s vision that “Disneyland will never be complete as long as there is imagination left in the world.”

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Since 1955, the Disneyland Resort and its 29,000 cast members have supported myriad nonprofit, educational and civic organizations in Southern California and beyond.

Nonprofit

- $5 million committed over a span of three years to ACT Anaheim by Disneyland Resort, Anaheim Angels and Anaheim Ducks.
- Approximately 750 Disney Wishes granted each year to children with life-threatening medical conditions through Make-A-Wish Foundation and other wish-granting organizations.
- For 26 years, the resort has supported Children’s Hospital of Orange County through the annual CHOC Walk in the Park, raising more than $29 million for CHOC Children’s.
- Eleven KaBOOM! playground builds in California as part of Disney’s Healthy Living initiative. In the next three years, four more playgrounds will be added in Anaheim parks.

Education

- For more than 30 years, the Disneyland Band has traveled to various venues throughout Orange County to educate more than 1.5 million second-graders about the history of the American Band.
- Disneyland Resort Dreamers & Doers program, recognizes exemplary Orange County, Calif. high school students who take action to improve their community, home or school with donations and grants for their schools and nonprofits.

- For the next 10 years, every sixth-grade student in Anaheim elementary schools will have the opportunity to receive a Disneyland Resort ticket to visit the resort with their class, as a field trip, after completing a project that enriches their school or community.

VoluntEARS

- Disneyland Resort cast members volunteer at hundreds of events annually through the Disney VoluntEARS program.
- Each year, cast members who contribute to the Disney VoluntEARS Community Fund nominate dozens of nonprofits to receive a total of more than $350,000. Cast members also are able to turn their hours of volunteer service into a financial contribution to a nonprofit of their choice through the EARS to You program.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

For more than 60 years, the Disneyland Resort has been an economic engine for Southern California. An independent study concluded that the Disneyland Resort generates $5.7 billion annually for the Southern California economy. The study also showed that each year the resort generates more than $370 million in taxes – including hotel, sales, property and income taxes – for surrounding cities, counties and the state. In addition to its own 29,000-member cast, the resort supports more than 25,000 jobs in Southern California. Between 2005 and 2015, Disneyland Resort grew its workforce by approximately 65%.

THE ENVIRONMENT

The Disneyland Resort has an ongoing commitment to develop and implement environmentally responsible practices to reduce our impact through energy and water conservation, waste minimization and inspiring others to do the same.

Nearly all the water used at the Disneyland Resort is recycled. Many Disneyland Resort vehicles run on compressed natural gas, including guest parking lot trams, Sailing Ship Columbia, and the Jungle Cruise boats, and parade floats, Finding Nemo submarines and monorails are electrically powered.

In the last 10 years, Disneyland Resort has doubled the amount of waste diverted from landfills, including the 16 million pounds of food scraps processed into animal feed, and the donation and repurposing of gently used shoes, uniforms, furniture and decorations. These efforts, along with other sustainable practices, were recognized with the 2009 and 2014 Governor’s Environmental and Economic Leadership Award (GEELA), California’s highest and most prestigious environmental honor.

FACTS & FIRSTS

- The Matterhorn Bobsleds was the first tubular steel roller coaster in the world when it opened in 1959, and it set the standard for modern-day roller-coaster design.
- Disneyland created the first daily operating monorail in the Western Hemisphere.
- The nighttime water spectacular World of Color uses a submersible platform that's bigger than a football field, with more than 18,000 points of control and revolutionary lighting that infuses nearly 1,200 fountains with color — making it one of the largest show systems ever built.
- More than 800 species of plants, native to 40 different countries, grow at the Disneyland Resort.

- The landscape surrounding the Jungle Cruise has evolved into its own ecosystem since the attraction opened in 1955. The trees have created a canopy that allows species of ground-plants to grow that otherwise wouldn't in Southern California.
- The Disneyland Railroad steam trains and Mark Twain Riverboat are powered by biodiesel made from recycled cooking oil — used to make french fries and other foods — at the Disneyland Resort, saving approximately 200,000 gallons of petroleum diesel each year.
- Disneyland Resort cast members speak more than 40 different languages.
- Through the years, a virtual “Who’s Who” visited the Disneyland Resort, including U.S. presidents (dating to Harry S. Truman), numerous heads of state and countless athletes, artists, authors and celebrities.
- Disneyland Resort cast members help to recycle more than 32 tons of material each day.
- More than 50 scuba divers work year-round to maintain Disneyland Resort attractions.
- There are more than 150 food & beverage locations at the Disneyland Resort.
